Weekend Escape to Gatsby's Gilded Age in Newport

Welcome spring from the seaside town of Newport, RI from June 6th to June 13th. Enjoy a long weekend or up to 7 days at The Wellington Resort in a spacious two-bedroom, two-bathroom suite that is beautifully decorated with fine furnishings and modern conveniences. The suite sleeps up to six (including sleep sofa) and is perfect for a couple or an entire family. Start your adventure by tasting the region's best chowder at the Newport Chowder Festival on Saturday and then walk back in time as you stroll along the ocean side Cliff Walk and admire the architectural treasures of the Gilded Age mansions. Tour the decadent mansions and understand what it was really like to live at the time both upstairs and downstairs at an American Downton Abbey. Leave the mansion life and hunt for seashells on one of Newport's magnificent beaches, climb the stone tower or fly a kite at Brenton Point State Park, and then watch the sunset at Castle Hill. Explore the Tennis Hall of Fame or travel 10 minutes out of town to one of the two local wineries on the Coastal Wine Trail where you can hear jazz, tour and taste!

Package includes: 2-7 nights at The Wellington, 4 tickets to any mansion of your choice, 2 tickets to the Servant Life Tour, Selection of 4 bottles of wine from the local boutique Westport River Vineyards, $100 gift certificate to enjoy at any one of the Newport Restaurant Group properties (includes Castle Hill Inn, The Mooring, and Smoke House). Explore this fantastic escape at www.wellington-resort.com, www.newportmansions.org, www.newportrestaurantgroup.com, coastalwinetrail.com

Portrait Sitting for Individual or Family

Since beginning her wedding photography business in 1997, Gigi de Manio quickly became one of Boston's preeminent wedding photographers, earning Boston Magazine's coveted "Best of Boston" for wedding photography in only her second year business in 1999. They said, "de Manio takes the cheese out of wedding photos, adopting a photojournalistic style that's more candid than controlled, catching those moments nobody notices." de Manio is selected for her documentary style to photograph events throughout the country and internationally, including the Chelsea Clinton and Marc Mezvinsky wedding, Owner of the Boston Red Sox-John Henry and Linda Pizutti's wedding, and the upcom-

Shopping Spree at Long's Jewelers' Estate Collection

Throughout the years, different pieces of jewelry enter our lives and jewelry boxes, and over time your jewelry tells a story about you. Sometimes these stories extend beyond ourselves... a string of pearls worn by your grandmother on her own wedding day, or a ring passed down to you from a favorite aunt, who purchased the ring while vacationing Italy. There is a special charm and whimsical allure to jewelry of a bygone era, for each piece has its own story. Why not continue your story? The winner of this auction item will enjoy the red carpet treatment with a guided tour of Long's pre-owned jewelry collection and a $1500 shopping spree to transform a previously-loved jewel into a cherished piece of artwork to its new owner.

Visit their website, LongJewelers.com to preview a portion of their extensive pre-owned collection. Bid high on this unique and generous donation to the CEF Auction!

In addition, for any purchases at Long's Jewelers made between now and Mother's Day, Long's will donate a portion of the proceeds to the CEF. Please use the card included in your gift bag when making your purchase.

Coppa & Collards Dinner for 10

Coppa & Collards: Southern soul & home-made charcuterie for you and up to 10 of your closest friends. Ken & Giuia Grady have restored part of the original Foss farmhouse to its earliest purpose, raising chickens, pigs & a garden to fill their larder and their curing cellar. Enjoy an outdoor seating and sampling of classic prosciutto that hasn't traveled more than 500 feet from where it was raised before being aged two years. Linger through a set of dinner courses served with the Southern spirit that still inspires their menu - fried green tomatoes & collards fresh picked from the field, or shrimp, pancetta & grits that highlights what regional cooking still has to offer. To enjoy the fresh garden-to-table choices at their best, the dinner should be scheduled in July-September, to be agreed between the hosts and winning bidder.

Generously donated by the Grady family.

Week Respite on Beautiful Vermont Homestead

This picturesque old Vermont farm, set on 102 acres, was once a working farm in the heart of Woodstock, VT. The property features two frog ponds and multiple trails through pastures and sugar maple woods. The surrounding area of Woodstock offers many recreational opportunities including alpine skiing, cross-country skiing, snowshoe trails, snowmobile trails, ponds for swimming, boating, and fishing, golfing, tennis, and hiking. Unique shops in the village of Woodstock will keep the shopper in your family happy and picking up healthy ingredients for dinner will be easy and fun at the many markets featuring locally grown and produced products.

The first level of the L-shaped farmhouse, parts of which date back to the 1790s, has a large kitchen with a generous space for dining, a dining room as part of a

Marcus Lewis Day Camp: One Week of Junior Discovery or Teen Exploration Camp

The winner of this gift certificate for The Marcus Lewis Day Camp can choose one week of either the Junior Discovery or Teen Exploration program!

The Junior Discovery Camp is for campers who will be entering kindergarten through fifth grades in the coming fall. Junior Discovery Camp offers the most popular traditional day camp activities combined with the opportunity for campers to choose and explore a variety of new interests. To promote a sense of wonder and engagement, we offer programs that facilitate exploration and active involvement. Campers attend activities designed to foster independence and self-expression as well as enhance their intellectual, physical, and social development.

The Teen Exploration Camp is for campers who will be entering the sixth through tenth grades in the coming fall. The camp operates from 9:00am-4:00pm and is the only 100% free choice program for teens. This exciting and innovative program allows campers to choose ALL of their activities each day based on their skill development. Campers can specialize in artistic, athletic, technology based activities or they can choose other, varied interests. This concept allows us to provide a great experience for every type of camper versus having to have the camper strive to assimilate into a program that may not be a good match for him or her.

Winners must be new to the camp and must register for the Summer 2014 program.

Generously donated by The Marcus Lewis Tennis Center.

One Week at Star Sports Camp

Star Camps always has an 7:1 campers to staff ratio. The programs are specially-designed to be age-appropriate and to meet the needs of both beginners and advanced players. During baseball, basketball, lacrosse, field hockey and softball camps, a camper can attend a combination of camps during one week (one in the morning and another in the afternoon) or just attend one camp. These weeks are set up this way to give children an opportunity to play two sports that they enjoy, or to concentrate on just one. Star Camp offers separate all-girls and all-boys soccer camps, volleyball camp, and a continuation of our flag football camp. This year, Star Camp will have all camp sessions at Sanborn Middle School in Concord. Camp week to be mutually agreed upon by donor and high bidder and must be redeemed by the end of summer 2014. Awe c'mon, send a great kid to camp! Bid bid bid! Generously donated by Star Sports Camp.

Tom Veirs Original Art Work "Sea Crane"

I am mostly a self-taught painter. That being said, I have had the opportunity to take classes with a number of people who have provided me with valuable guidance and techniques. My paintings are based on the emotions I get from looking at form, color and shape. There is nothing more than that. Joni Mitchell says it best for me: "I am a lonely painter. I live in a box of paint. I'm frightened by the devil and drawn to those ones who ain't afraid."

I am an oil painter working in a predominantly abstract style. I maintain "Hatchie Bottom Studios" (studio #425) at Western Avenue Studios in Lowell, MA. Call 617-852-386 or email me at Tom.Veirs@NEmoves.com. Generously donated by Tom Veirs.

Maris Platais Original Artwork "Winter Solstice"

Maris Platais was born in Latvia and has lived in New England since 1949. He is a graduate of Tufts University and The Museum School of The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston where he later became a member of the faculty. He lectures and demonstrates to art associations throughout the north-east. He is a member of The Guild of Boston Artists where he has had several one-man shows. He has received several awards for excellence in the Mystic International Competition and also Top 100 Competition, Arts for the Parks, Jackson Hole, WY. In 1996 and 1997, he received the Honors Award in Graphics from The Academic Artists Association, Springfield, MA. The American Society of Marine Painters has awarded him membership and he is past President of The Concord Art Association, Concord, MA.

Platais is well known for his acrylics on canvas, pen & inks and limited edition etchings of New England landscapes and boats. Many of his fine works depict Kennebec, ME and the magnificent trees that surround his studio near Concord. He paints in every season on location, but the blazing colors of his autumn scenes are treasures. Generously donated by Maris Platais.

2 Tickets to any Show, 2014/2015 Season at the Merrimack Repertory Theater

Now in its 34th season, MRT is the only non-profit professional theatre serving Greater Lowell and its surrounding region. MRT's performance facility is the 279-seat Nancy L. Donahue Theatre, located in the Liberty Hall wing of Lowell Memorial Auditorium, a city-owned venue constructed in 1922 and located in downtown Lowell.

MRT's seven-play season is produced and presented from September through May, serving an audience of 40,000 including a stable base of 4,000 subscribers. For the 12-13 Season, 82% of subscribers renewed their subscriptions with 90% of those purchasing a full 7-production package before play titles were announced. This loyal audience has been built by the regular selection of contemporary plays with titles that are largely unfamiliar to the majority of patrons; programming that, in the words of a Nashua (NH) Telegraph critic, "delights us with novelty and makes us think." Plan your evening out as high bidder will walk away with 2 complimentary tickets to any show in the 2014-2015 season. Generously donated by Merrimack Repertory Theater.

Orchestra of Indian Hill

Don't miss this opportunity to discover the premier professional orchestra west of Boston! The winner of this item will receive 2 tickets to the concert of their choice during the 2014-15 season at their home in the performing arts center at Littleton High School. The Orchestra of Indian Hill, led by Artistic Director Bruce Hagen, performs a broad range of repertoire from the Baroque to works by 21st century composers. "It is a joy to encounter an orchestra, conductor and audience of such high character and quality as that of the Orchestra of Indian Hill."— John W. Ehrlich, Boston Music Intelligencer. These tickets are good for the 2015 orchestra season. Program dates for this season will be released late Spring/Summer 2014. Please check www.indianhillmusic.org or call 978-486-9524 for programming information. Generously donated by Indian Hill Music and the Orchestra of Indian Hill.
